Intent of the Clinician Educator Milestones

The Clinician Educator Milestones are a joint effort of the ACGME, the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education, the Association of American Medical Colleges, and the American Association of Colleges of Osteopathic Medicine. This series of subcompetencies is designed to aid in the development and improvement of teaching and learning skills across the continuum of medical education.

The Clinician Educator Milestones are not an accreditation requirement and are not intended to become one in the future.

The Clinician Educator Milestones provide a framework for assessment of educational skills of faculty members who teach undergraduate, graduate, or continuing medical education. Faculty members can use these milestones for their own self-assessment as educators, or with a trusted peer to provide feedback and assessment. The ultimate goal of these milestones is to provide faculty members with tools to help them with lifelong growth and development as educators. They are designed for:

- Educators
- Educational scholars
- Educational leaders (administrators, program directors)

Each subcompetency covers a different area of professional development and offers stand-alone assessment of a specific teaching skill or method. Individuals may choose to focus on one or more of the milestones, but do not need to assess against all the milestones.

Understanding Milestone Levels

This document presents the Clinician Educator Milestones. Milestones are knowledge, skills, attitudes, and other attributes organized in a developmental framework. The narrative descriptions are targets for performance. Milestones are arranged into levels. Tracking from Level 1 to Level 5 is synonymous with moving from novice to expert.

Selection of a level implies the educator substantially demonstrates the milestones in that level, as well as those in lower levels (see the diagram on page 4).

Level 1 represents a novice

Level 2 represents the learner who demonstrates the attributes of an advanced beginner

Level 3 represents the competent learner

Level 4 represents the proficient learner

Level 5 represents an expert

Milestones are designed for formative, developmental purposes to support continuous quality improvement for individual learners, education programs, and the specialty. The ACGME and its partners will continue to evaluate and perform research on the Milestones to assess their impact and value. Examples are provided for some milestones within this document. Note: the examples are not a required element or outcome; they are provided to share the intent of the element.

A Supplemental Guide is also available to provide the intent of each subcompetency, examples for each level, assessment methods or tools, and other available resources. The Supplemental Guide, like examples contained within the Milestones, is designed only to assist in assessment and is not meant to demonstrate any required element or outcome.

Additional resources are available in the Milestones section of the ACGME website. Follow the links under “What We Do” at www.acgme.org.

The diagram below presents an example set of milestones for one subcompetency. Performance on the milestones for each subcompetency will be indicated by selecting the level of milestones that best describes knowledge, skill, and/or ability in relation to those milestones.

Educational Theory and Practice 1: Teaching and Facilitating Learning
Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4	Level 5
Identifies various techniques for teaching	Delivers instruction in unidirectional manner resulting in passive learning	Teaches in a way that invites active learning and encourages critical appraisal	Uses scholarly teaching methods for varied levels of learners across settings	Serves as a coach to other educators on effective teaching practices
Discusses lessons implicitly learned (e.g., hidden curriculum)	Identifies that own behavior (role modeling) is part of the hidden curriculum	Intentionally role models desired practice behaviors to aid learners	Intentionally role models desired behaviors to aid learners across multiple settings	Works collaboratively to develop educators' ability to demonstrate evidence-based teaching behaviors
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Comments: Not Yet Completed Level 1 <input type="checkbox"/>

Selecting a response box in the middle of a level implies that milestones in that level and in lower levels have been substantially demonstrated.

Selecting a response box on the line in between levels indicates that milestones in lower levels have been substantially demonstrated as well as some milestones in the higher level(s).

Competency Statements

Universal Pillars for All Clinician Educators

Demonstrate the commitment to lifelong learning and enhancing one's own behaviors as a clinician educator.

Administration

Demonstrate administrative skills relevant to their professional role, program management, and the learning environment that leads to best health outcomes.

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in the Learning Environment

Acknowledge and address the complex intrapersonal, interpersonal, and systemic influences of diversity, power, privilege, and inequity in all settings so all educators and learners can thrive and succeed.

Educational Theory and Practice

Ensure the optimal development of competent learners through the application of the science of teaching and learning to practice.

Well-Being

Apply principles of well-being to develop and model a learning environment that supports behaviors which promote personal and learner psychological, emotional, and physical health.

Universal Pillar 1: Reflective Practice and Commitment to Personal Growth
Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4	Level 5
Accepts responsibility for personal and professional development by establishing goals	Demonstrates openness to performance data (feedback from learners and other input) to inform goals	Seeks performance data episodically, with adaptability and humility	Consistently solicits specific performance data, with adaptability and humility, including from learners, that leads to behavior change	Role models consistently seeking performance data with adaptability and humility and making positive behavior changes
Identifies the factors that contribute to gap(s) between expectations and actual performance	Analyzes and reflects on the factors that contribute to gap(s) between expectations and actual performance	Analyzes, reflects on, and institutes behavioral change(s) to narrow the gap(s) between expectations and actual performance	Challenges personal assumptions and considers alternatives in narrowing the gap(s) between expectations and actual performance	Coaches others on reflective practice
Actively seeks opportunities to improve	Designs and implements a learning plan, with prompting	Independently creates and implements a learning plan	Uses performance data to measure the effectiveness of the learning plan and, when necessary, improves it	Facilitates the design and implementation of learning plans for others

Comments: Not Yet Completed Level 1 <input type="checkbox"/>

Educational Theory and Practice 4: Feedback
Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4	Level 5
Describes timing, content, and approaches to conducting feedback conversations	Elicits learners' goals and gives predominantly reinforcing feedback based on goals	Identifies reinforcing and modifying data to give feedback that initiates behavior change	Consistently engages in challenging feedback conversations that results in desired behavior change	Guides others to conduct effective feedback conversations
Describes importance of soliciting feedback in developing a growth mindset	Reviews feedback about self, manages emotional reactions to feedback, and incorporates relevant items	Actively solicits general feedback from learners	Consistently solicits specific feedback from learners that leads to behavior change	Guides others to solicit, reflect on, and incorporate feedback
Describes importance of establishing a learning environment that values feedback	Role models exemplary feedback practices without explicitly setting up the learning environment	Role models exemplary feedback practices and explicitly states importance of feedback in the learning environment	Supports learning environment in which all learners and faculty engage in actionable feedback	Demonstrates expertise in explicitly constructing and maintaining learning environment in which all learners give and receive feedback to improve performance

Educational Theory and Practice 11: Curriculum
Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4	Level 5
Identifies the elements, types, and purpose of a curriculum	Participates in developing a curriculum	Adapts a curriculum to meet the needs of the learners	Leads development of a curriculum	Coaches others to develop a curriculum for the needs of their learners
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Comments: Not Yet Completed Level 1 <input type="checkbox"/>

Well-Being: Well-Being of Learners and Colleagues
Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4	Level 5
Describes relationship between well-being, burnout, learning, and patient safety	Shares approaches to support well-being	Employs various approaches that support and foster well-being and reduce burnout	Employs system-based approaches that foster well-being and reduce burnout and consistently provides support and resources to foster well-being and reduce burnout	Uses experiences with learners to assess, reimagine, and create new system-based interventions and structures to support well-being
Describes signs of physical, emotional, and/or professional distress	Recognizes learners or colleagues in apparent distress	Intervenes and identifies resources for a specific situation	Guides learners or colleagues in distress and provides on-going support	Guides others in recognizing learners in distress and educates them in available resources
